

Introduction to the World: Cultures

Week 10

Don't get discouraged by comparing your homeschool to someone else's. Families are all different, so our homeschools will look different based on our family's preferences, seasons, and needs. That's the great thing about homeschooling; tailoring curricula, schedules, and activities to meet the goals and needs of our own family.

Teaching Moments and Hands-On Activities

For printable activities and coloring sheets to go along with this week's stories in Egermeier's Bible Story Book see Lessons 59-60 at <http://children.calvarychapel.com/site/curriculum.htm>.

Visit a mall or large department store to talk about Clothes & Fashion. Compare how styles have changed over the years. Discuss the difference between classic styles and trendy styles.

A Teacher's Lighthouse Resource from the US Coast Guard may be found at <http://www.uscg.mil/history/WEBLIGHTHOUSES/LighthouseCurriculum.pdf> to go along with The Light at Tern Rock. Directions for making a "lighthouse in a bottle" are at <http://jas.familyfun.go.com/arts-and-crafts?page=CraftDisplay&craftid=10737>.

A wide variety of winter-themed hands-on activities and crafts are available at www.enchantedlearning.com/crafts/winter to go with the poems in The Llama Who Had No Pajama.

Add pages to your animal scrapbook for shrews and foxes this week to go along with the poems in The Llama Who Had No Pajama.
