

Introduction to the World: Cultures

Week 21

Take time each day to do something you enjoy... gardening, reading, needlework, music, browsing the internet... Enjoy a cup of tea or coffee as you read your Bible first thing in the morning before the children get up. Keep in touch with friends... write a quick note or send an email. This will refresh your mind and spirit to help you meet the day-to-day challenges of parenting and homeschooling!

Teaching Moments and Hands-On Activities

For printable activities and coloring sheets to go along with this week's stories in Egermeier's Bible Story Book see Lessons 116-118, 147-155 at <http://children.calvarychapel.com/site/curriculum.htm>.

Hero Tales activities: More information and online activities about William and Catherine Booth and Hudson Taylor are available at <http://chi.gospelcom.net/kids/glimpsesforkids/index.php>.

For an easy field trip to tie in with William and Catherine Booth visit your local Salvation Army.

Instructions for a "Grandma's Quilt" paper craft may be found at www.dltk-kids.com/pioneer/mquilt.htm to go along with In Grandma's Attic.

Go out in the backyard or to a park and spread a blanket on the ground to sit on. Be very still for a few minutes and see how many of God's creatures you can see or hear, as in the "Look" poem of The Llama Who Had No Pajama.

Look for hands-on and printable activities about insects to go along with the poems in The Llama Who Had No Pajama at www.enchantedlearning.com/subjects/insects/printouts.shtml. You may want to add insect pages to your animal scrapbook.
