

Introduction to the World: Cultures

Week 7

Remember that you know your children better than anyone else, so you are most qualified to make decisions about their education! Take any advice given with a grain of salt and weigh it against what you and your husband feel would be best for your family. Homeschooling can be challenging, but oh-so-rewarding!

Teaching Moments and Hands-On Activities

For printable activities and coloring sheets to go along with this week's stories in Egermeier's Bible Story Book see Lessons 44-47 at <http://children.calvarychapel.com/site/curriculum.htm>.

There are dragon-themed activities at www.enchantedlearning.com/themes/dragon.shtml to go along with My Father's Dragon. If your children enjoyed My Father's Dragon and you have time for some extra reading, check out the sequels from the library. They are Elmer and the Dragon and The Dragons of Blueland.

Add pages to your animal scrapbook for rabbits and raccoons to go along with the poems in The Llama Who Had No Pajama. Add in any other animals mentioned in My Father's Dragon.

Have your children tasted all the different kinds of nuts mentioned in "Nuts To You" in The Llama Who Had No Pajama? Visit the produce department of your local supermarket and see how many of the nuts mentioned you can find. See how different they all look. Choose one or two "new" ones to try.

The Real Mother Goose online activities:

"A B C" rebus rhyme - www.enchantedlearning.com/rhymes/abc.shtml

"Banbury Cross" rebus rhyme - www.enchantedlearning.com/rhymes/Banburycross.shtml

"Banbury Cross" coloring sheets - www.niteowl.org/kids/cockhorse.html

"Georgy Porgy" rebus rhyme - www.enchantedlearning.com/rhymes/Georgie.shtml

"Georgy Porgy" coloring sheets - www.niteowl.org/kids/georgie.html

"Georgy Porgy" online game - www.mothergoose.com/Games/georgie_Porgy.htm